From Editor's Desk.....

"Curiosity is the wick in the candle of learning"

-William Arthur Ward

Earnest greetings to all,

I hope everyone is doing well and staying healthy. We value the time and work you invest in increasing the number of readers and the caliber of articles submitted to this publication. In light of all the most recent developments occurring both domestically and globally, our team has worked extremely hard to produce this December issue.

We continue to welcome new members to the Editorial Advisory Board and look forward to expanding our community's research pool by adding more scholars who are eager to enhance this factually significant journal in dentistry.

We offer our appreciation to the hardworking authors and reviewers who made this development possible. As we collaborate to expand the journal's influence in 2024, we look forward to continue our journey with you, our authors, reviewers, and readers of IJMI. Please get in touch with us if you have any recommendations.

I hope everyone enjoys reading this new edition and notifies others about it.

Best wishes.
